

Dear Parents, Carers & Families,

What a busy week it has been in school! We are still buzzing from the fabulous PTFA event last weekend—thank you to everyone who attended and supported. Do take a look at the later pages of this newsletter for more information and some lovely highlights from the day.

This week's newsletter is truly jam-packed with celebrations, achievements and important updates. I hope you enjoy reading about everything the children have been involved in.

To round off the week, I'm delighted to announce the winners of our Be Bright, Be Seen competition organised by our Children's Champions – congratulations and thanks to everyone that took part, and to our lucky winners who will now be looking after their teddy mascot! Every child has also been gifted a special keyring to help them “be bright” as the darker evenings draw in.

Amelia, Olivia S, Albert, Duaa

Wishing you all a restful weekend.

Miss Ingrams and the Lime Wood Primary team.

BREAKFAST WITH SANTA

A PTFA event!

Last Saturday, a sprinkle of Christmas magic drifted over our school as PTFA elves teamed up with Santa to create a truly enchanting morning for our children and families. From mixing up sparkly reindeer food to tucking into a jolly breakfast, the excitement just kept growing—right up to the moment the children tiptoed into Santa's glittering grotto to meet the big man himself!

We heard plenty of delighted whispers along the way: "This is my best day!", "I love him!", "This is so fun!", and "I can't wait!"

What a magical start to the festive season!

READY STEADY READ & BOOK FAIR

Thank you to all of the children for completing your sponsored reads – you raised a magnificent £490!

Cillian, Mila, Victoria, Purity, Yaseen, Arham, Olivia S, Joshua N, Mati, Hayden, Kaira, Jamie, Dionte, Ruslan, Naila, Albert, Sahil, Roxana, Joshua B.

Together with our Book Fair, free books and matched funding our families have helped raise £909.86 to purchase books for our school which is absolutely fantastic!

With the funds raised and matched funding from Osborne Books we have ordered lots of mindfulness, wellbeing and inclusion books which will be placed in our new Wellbeing Room that will launch in January for everyone in our school to enjoy.
