KINDNESS

It has been lovely to see the sun shining this week, bringing a purposeful atmosphere across the school.

We began the week with an assembly led by Mrs Hamed, focusing on the celebration of Eid. This provided pupils with a valuable opportunity to develop their understanding of different cultures and beliefs, while reflecting on shared values such as gratitude and community. Pupils engaged thoughtfully in follow-up activities across the school: Reception created star decorations through arts and crafts, Year 1 used beads to construct star shapes, and Year 2 composed messages of gratitude. These outcomes are now showcased in a whole-school display that reflects both pupils' learning and our inclusive ethos. We would like to wish all families celebrating a very happy Eid Mubarak.

We are also pleased to share that our Identity Tapestry has been completed for this academic year. This collective piece demonstrates pupils' ability to reflect on and articulate their own identities, while recognising and valuing those of others. It stands as a strong example of how we promote belonging, respect and pupil voice across the school. We are proud of every contribution and look forward to continuing this work as new children join our community next year.

I am also delighted to share some exciting news - Miss Willard is expecting a baby later this year! I am sure you all join me in wishing her well.

Finally, today, the school came together to support Comic Relief, with pupils and staff wearing silly socks as part of a "doing something funny for money" initiative. This event provided a meaningful opportunity for pupils to contribute to a wider cause, developing their understanding of social responsibility and the importance of helping others. Thank you to everyone for your generous contributions and continued support.

RECOGNISING & CELEBRATING EID

Our children came together for our Eid assembly, learning about the meaning of Eid and celebrating kindness, gratitude and community. Thank you to Mrs Hamed for leading the assembly.

We have come together as a community to recognise Eid and have added to our display filled with decorations made by the children.

COMIC RELIEF - SILLY SOCKS

Thank you to everyone that took part - we saw a fabulous array of silly socks and raised £103.55 for Comic Relief

IDENTITY TAPESTRY

Community Identity Tapestry

Our Identity Tapestry project celebrates what makes each child special. Every child created a connection that shows who they are, their interests, their culture, and the things that are important to them. When all the pieces were woven together, they made one big tapestry that represented our whole school community.

This project is also a reminder of our school values.

We showed KINDNESS by listening to each other's stories.

We used TEAMWORK as we worked together to weave our tapestry.

We showed CURIOSITY by learning about each other. We showed RESPECT by celebrating our differences and our similarities.

We felt PRIDE when we saw the finished tapestry that we created together.

Our tapestry reminds us that everyone is unique, and together we make our school strong and special!

SPORTS CHAMPIONS

SPORTS CHALLENGE OF THE HALF TERM

SPRING 2

How many star jumps can you do in 1 minute?

You can challenge your parents or make the time
longer to challenge yourself further!

YOU CAN DO IT!

Limewood Primary Sports Champions would like to introduce a challenge of the half term.

We would like to introduce a simple, optional challenge that families can enjoy together at home. This is not about competition or being the best, but about spending quality time together, keeping active, and having fun.

The aim is to encourage children to take on a challenge, try their best, and feel proud of their efforts. Along the way, we hope to build important skills such as independence, resilience, perseverance and confidence.

We hope this will be a positive and low-pressure way for children to develop self-belief and celebrate what they can achieve.

VALUES IN ACTION

SAFEGUARDING

E-Bike and E-Scooter Safety at Home

E-bikes and e-scooters are popular and convenient, but they can pose a fire risk if not used and stored safely. Their lithium-ion batteries can overheat or catch fire, especially if damaged or charged incorrectly.

To stay safe:

Do not charge overnight or when unattended
Use only the correct charger

Keep away from doors and escape routes

Charge in a clear, well-ventilated area

Never charge damaged batteries

If possible, store and charge them outside (e.g. in a shed or garage).

Please also ensure your home has working smoke alarms. In case of fire, get out, stay out, and call emergency services.

Thank you for helping keep our community safe.

How to Avoid Meningitis? NHS Advice

How meningitis is spreading

Meningitis is usually caused by a bacterial or viral infection. Bacterial meningitis is rarer but more serious than viral meningitis.

Infections that cause meningitis can be spread through:

- sneezing
- coughing
- kissing
- sharing utensils, cutlery and toothbrushes

Meningitis is usually caught from people who carry these viruses or bacteria in their nose or throat but aren't ill themselves. It can also be caught from someone with meningitis, but this is less common.

Prevention

Vaccinations against meningitis:

There are vaccinations offer some protection against certain causes of meningitis.

These include the:

- meningococcal B vaccine – offered to babies at 8 weeks, 12 weeks and between 12 and 13 months
- 6-in-1 vaccine – offered to babies at 8, 12 and 16 weeks of age and at 18 months
- pneumococcal vaccine for babies – offered to babies at 16 weeks and between 12 and 13 months old
- MMRV vaccine – offered to babies aged between 12 and 13 months, and 18 months
- meningococcal ACWY vaccine – offered to young people at around 14 years of age

Hygiene:

- Washing your hands with hot water and soap regularly
- Putting your hand to your mouth when sneezing and coughing or use a tissue
- Avoid sharing cutlery or drinking cups, or other utensils.

When to get medical help?

You should get medical advice as soon as possible if you're concerned that you or your child could have meningitis.

- Trust your instincts and don't wait until a rash develops.
- Phone 999 for an ambulance or go to your nearest accident and emergency (A&E) department immediately if you think you or your child might be seriously ill.
- Phone 111 or your GP practice for advice if you're not sure if it's anything serious or you think you may have been exposed to someone with meningitis.
