Kinship

Looking after someone else's child?

It might not have been planned, but you stepped up

This is called kinship care

If you're caring for a child who isn't your own, you may be entitled to support.

You don't have to do this alone

What is kinship care?

When you care for a child who isn't your own because their parents can't.

You might be:

- A grandparent
- A relative
- A family friend

You're making a difference and support is available
